

Cutting Edge 2021
Te toka tū moana

Oraka ararau
MANY PATHWAYS TO WELLBEING

Hosted by:
dapaanz
fostering excellence in addiction practice

Programme

Thursday 09 September

| | |
|---------|--|
| 8.30am | Mihi whakatau and welcome |
| 9.15am | John Dobson Memorial Lecture Dr Sue Bagshaw |
| 10.00am | Six-month Pūwhakamua programme Billy Macfarlane |
| 10.30am | MORNING TEA AMONGST THE EXHIBITION STANDS |
| 11.00am | Te Ara Pounamu |
| 11.45am | A trojan horse or Rangatiratanga? Negotiating enabling violations Donna Matahaere-Atariki |
| 12.30pm | LUNCH AMONGST THE EXHIBITION STANDS |

Thursday 09 September CONTINUED

1.30pm Concurrent sessions A

| A1 | A2 | A3 | A4 |
|---|---|---|---|
| KAUPAPA MĀORI | EMERGING THEMES | GAMBLING | WHANAU & COMMUNITY |
| Under the radar: The wickedness of exclusion! Eugene Carnachan | A new AOD Model of Care for the greater Wellington region: Connecting the client pathway Tommy Benefield | Increasing access and choice for Gambling Harm Tāngata Whaiora Karena Quigley, Denise Giles | Implementation of family & whanau meetings within an AOD service using the single session family consultation framework Melissa Roberts |
| Whiti te Rā: Connecting whai ora Māori (Māori clients) to traditional pathways of wellbeing Andre Mclachlan, Waikaremoana Waitoki | Cutting new grooves with 'Yarn's & Vinyl' for men in recovery Mark Wallis | Predatory monetisation: Exploring the use and effects of gambling mechanics in video games Sage Anastasi | Multi family group: Exploring family dynamics in a therapeutic community setting Robert Tua, Tash Cairns |
| Kotahi te kī, kotahi te kōrero: Online Māori lived experience wānanga during the COVID-19 lockdowns Aaryn Niuapu | Haven: Supporting people where they need it, in ways that work for them Rachel Scaife, Carmel Henry, Justine McFarlane | Mana Enhancing Service: A fresh approach to clinical practice Bridgitte Thornley, Te Rukutia Tongaawhikau | International Women's Day: Acknowledging barriers and celebrating wahine Rachael Mason, Mary Caffin, Darcie Cutland |
| Moko Tu Rongo Healing through Te Ao Māori Kerry Hirini, Maria Tamepo | Shifting the balance of power - Consumer led procurement Channa Perry, Pete Thorburn | Acknowledging the journey. Is gambling for excitement or an escape? Shirleen Prasad | Wahine pathways to Māori wellbeing Layla Lyndon-tonga, Sophia Liu-Brown |
| Ki Te Whai Ao Ki Te Ao Marama Te Umu Patutoro Maruera, Roka Melbourne, Allan Apiata, Zach William | Looking after yourself while looking after others: Self-care in trauma informed organisations Karin Isherwood, Abigail Milnes | How can a bank help reduce gambling harm? Bonnie Lovich-Howitt, Julia Jackson | Using recovery capital to better understand recovery journeys Zeddy Chaudhry, Edward Wilkie |
| 2.45pm | AFTERNOON TEA AMONGST THE EXHIBITION STANDS | | |
| 3.15pm | 'Stuff', 'Moral evil' and Stigma: Can we imagine a health based approach to drugs? Dr Fiona Hutton | | |
| 3.45pm | Oraka ararau – Pathways to wellbeing – taking a Government and Crown agency perspective Representatives from different Ministries and Crown agencies will share with us their organisation's visions and plans to support pathways to wellbeing for the people they serve and for the addiction treatment sector. | | |
| 5.00pm | Wrap up and closing of day one | | |
| Evening | OSCARZ AWARDS DINNER | | |

Friday 10 September

8.30am Welcome to day two | Hui and Fono Feedback | Poster Awards and Announcements

9.00am Whānau at the cutting edge: The role of Whānau Ora in the addiction journey Helen Leahy

9.45am DRUA Pasifika keynote speaker to be confirmed

10.15am MORNING TEA AMONGST THE EXHIBITION STANDS

11.00am Concurrent sessions B

| B1 SETTINGS | B2 KAUPAPA MĀORI / PACIFIC | B3 RESEARCH | B4 PREVENTION & TREATMENT |
|--|--|---|--|
| Population health approach to reducing alcohol-related harm in Counties Manukau Luisa Silailai, Rosa Solomona | The "path of Ifoga" is a qualitative case study aimed to explore conceptual considerations and practical application of Ifoga's principles, practices, and processes to how it can inform intervention for alcohol and drug misuse in the Samoan and Pacific communities in Aotearoa, New Zealand Alapua Poasa | Many 'hazards' hinder wellbeing: The challenge of stigma for people receiving opioid substitution treatment during disasters Denise Blake, Sheridan Pooley, Antonia Lyons | A brain-based roadmap for Recovery Keri Mcgarva, Claire Crowley |
| Alcohol and pregnancy: An online learning tool for midwives and LMCs John Vogenthaler | Culture 'is' clinical - A perspective on the effectiveness of using Fa'asamoa cultural protocols within addiction treatment. Sailivao Aukusitino Senio, Natalie Senio | He Ture Kia Tika/Let the Law Be Right: Informing evidence-based policy through kaupapa Maori and co-production of lived experience Katey Thom, Stella Black, David Burnside, Jessica Hastings | Piloting an electronic alcohol risk communication tool for use in primary care Bridget Kool, Gayly Humphrey, Sarah Sharpe, Jessica McCormack, Shanthi Ameratunga |
| HIPs and health coaches: New roles for addressing alcohol in primary care Sheryl Rush-Parkes | Childhood sexual trauma and addiction: Understanding the importance of working with Māori and Pacific men affected by childhood sexual violence and drug use Alexander Stevens II | Whānau perspectives of roll-your-own (rollies) tobacco and pictorial warning labels Maria Ngawat, Lizzie Strickett, Mei-Ling Blank | Tackling psychiatric comorbidity in those with SUD: A transdiagnostic cognitive behaviour therapy approach Jennifer Jordan |
| From healthy living to saving lives: Are addiction services doing enough to ensure our service users are 'Equally well'? Debby Sutton, Edith Moore | The incorporation of interventions from Te Ao Māori as a means of promoting catharsis in rangatahi Māori aged 17-24 in a prison environment Tyrell Gemmell, Dene Kire, Kahuirangi Tauri | The Social Recovery Model in practice: Early findings and examples of application within a therapeutic community Zeddy Chaudhry, Darrell Wilson | Point-of-care rapid testing for hepatitis C antibodies at New Zealand needle exchanges Geoff Noller, Jenny Bourke |
| Te Ngahere - Raranga Tetahi Ki Tetahi Sheena Maunsel, Peter Sciascia | Ka Po Ka Ao Ka Awatea - Transitioning from darkness to light Melody Nepe | The one for the road group intervention for repeat drink/drug drivers: Evaluation, review, development Alex Dawber, Kilisitina Dawber | Co-existing problems in perinatal women with Substance Use Disorder (SUD) in the Auckland region and pathways of care Chandni Prakash, Clara Dawkins |

Friday 10 September

CONTINUED

| | |
|---------|--|
| 12.30pm | LUNCH AMONGST THE EXHIBITION STANDS |
| 1.30pm | Inkspots and ice cream Dr David Best |
| 2.15pm | Identity and drug use - Punishment, prison and addiction Sèan Manning |
| 3.00pm | Wrap up |
| 3.10pm | Whakamutunga |
| 3.20pm | Conference concludes |

Saturday 11 September

| | |
|---------------------|---|
| | POST-CONFERENCE WORKSHOPS |
| 9.00am - 12.30pm | <ul style="list-style-type: none">- Mana enhancing practice- Therapeutic community practice- Leadership |